KINGSCOURT.

Mr. Joseph William Weaving, a well-known inhabitant of Kingscourt, died on Saturday, May 22nd, at the age of 52 years. The funeral took place on Thursday, May 27th, amid many manifestations of respect, at Rodborough Church, the Rev. W. Waring officiating. The chief mourners were Mrs. J. Weaving (wife), Messrs. Ernest, Leslie, Fred and Albert Weaving (sons), Gerty and Dorothy Weaving (daughters), Mr. Adolphus Weaving (brother), Mrs. C. Cooke, Mrs. G. Bryant and Mrs. Larner (sisters), Mrs. Ernest and Mr. Ewart Weaving (daughter and son-in-law), Mrs. A. Weaving, Mrs. G. Swayne (sister-in-law), C. Cooke, G. Bryant, J. Larner, G. Swayne, F. Swayne and E. Swayne (brothers-in-law), Miss W. Weaving, Miss L. Weaving, Miss D. Cooke, Miss B. Swayne and Miss H. Swayne (nieces), Mr. R. Bryant, Mr. E. Bryant, Mr. H. Cooke and Mr. B. Swayne (nephews), Mr. A. Weaving and Mr. H. Weaving (cousins), and Mr. W. Swayne (nephew). Beautiful floral tributes were sent by his sorowing wife and family; his loving mother, sister and brothers (Isabel and Jack); his sorrowing mother, sister and brother-in-law; Adolph and Bessie; Annie, George and family; nieces and nephews at Stanfields; Winnie and Gar; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Short, Lightpill; his loving niece and nephews, Dorothy and Harry, Selsley; Mrs. A. G. Short and family, Stanfields; Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher; little Ronnie and Reggie, New Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Davies; Kitty, Mildred and Arthur Davies; all his friends at the Erinoid Works; Aunt Lizzie, Ruth and Olive. The inscription on the coffin was "Joseph William Weaving, died May 22nd, 1920, aged 52 years." The coffin was made of polished elm with brass fittings. The bearers were Messrs. G. Harrison, F. Niblett, W. Vick, F. White, G. Goulding and W. Ashmead.

Stroud Journal 04.06.1920